

MASTER OF SUSTAINABLE URBAN DESIGN

The MSUD is an 11-month degree for students with at least one professional degree, as well as mid-career professionals seeking new opportunities in landscape architecture, planning/engineering firms, government agencies, or nonprofits. The resiliency-based curriculum will provide the expertise needed to help resolve complex, 21st-century urban design and sustainability challenges.

For details and application visit go.illinois.edu/MSUD